

I do not think that the FCC should change Indiana's Telephone Privacy laws. I have so much more time for necessary things at home now because I do not receive 15-20 unsolicited sales calls a week. I usually receive about 1 call per week from telemarketers. Please reconsider this possible decision.